Sex with the devil.

With Christianity, Satan has taken cult prostitution to the next level.

The source of all religion is demonic. Satan's purpose in all religion is to distract humanity from discovering the true God. This is not as easy as it sounds because 1) the work of the true God, through Christ, was not done in a corner, and 2) all humanity longs for God. Therefore, Satan must give humanity a substitute for God that looks like God, feels like God, sounds like God and smells like God, but that isn't God. The substitute can't be nothing; it must be tactile. Thus, Satan presents to humanity false gods (sub-deities) that are very much real (they can be felt, heard and sometimes even seen) but that remain nothing but imitations.

The Greek word translated "religion" in the Concordant Literal New Testament is deisidaimonia, a two-part Greek word whose English elements are "DREAD-DEMONISM." A common element of all religions is dread, or fear. Fear inspires the sometimes frenetic, sometimes trance-like worship that demons crave. It is an emotion-based worship that is difficult to escape once introduced. To create fear, the demons compelling religions construct systems that reward obedience but that punish apostasy (disobedience; questioning; mutinous thoughts) with fearful, otherworldly torments.

IDOLATRY

God hates idolatry. Any human or demon-crafted idol presenting itself as God engenders false ideas about God. The only true image of God is Christ. Christ is called "the Image of the invisible God" (Colossians 1:15). God hates false images of Himself. The only Image He approves of is Christ.

Israel turned easily to idols because she hated the discipline of the true God. The true God refused to stroke Israel's ego. False gods, on the other hand, made room for what Israelites (and all religious people) desire most in the flesh: self-righteousness.

CULT PROSTITUTES

To induce idol worship in Israel, dark forces introduced cult prostitution. Sex being one of the strongest human attractions, the gods used women to seduce men into abandoning Yahweh. (Satan also used gay men.) The men would then lead their wives into idolatry.

In the Old Testament, two different Hebrew words describe two different kinds of prostitutes. From Wikipedia—

The Hebrew Bible uses two different words for prostitute, zonah and kedeshah (or qedesha). The word zonah simply meant an ordinary prostitute or loose woman. But the word kedeshah literally means consecrated (feminine form), from the Semitic root q-d-sh meaning holy or set apart.

The kedeshah was the cult prostitute. She was set apart by the demons for purposes previously described. Cult prostitution is defined thus—

Sacred prostitution, temple prostitution, cult prostitution, and religious prostitution are general terms for a sexual rite consisting of sexual intercourse or other sexual activity performed in the context of religious worship, perhaps as a form of fertility rite or divine marriage (hieros gamos). Some scholars prefer the terms “sacred sex” or “sacred sexual rites” to “sacred prostitution” in cases where payment for services was not involved.

Dr. Merrill F. Unger of the Dallas Theological Seminary has this to say about cult prostitutes in Israel—

The inhabitants of Canaan were addicted to Baal worship, which was conducted by priests in temples and in good weather outdoors in fields and particularly on hilltops called “high places.” The cult included animal sacrifice, ritualistic meals, and licentious dances. Near the rock altar was a sacred pillar or massebah, and close by the symbol of the asherah, both of which apparently symbolized human fertility. High places had chambers for sacred prostitution by male prostitutes (kedishim) and sacred harlots (kedeshoth) (I Kings 14:23, 24; II Kings 23:7).

This is the brand of prostitution Paul warned the Corinthians against (1 Corinthians 10:8), for which God killed 24,000 in one day in Shittim of Moab. It was cult prostitution as graphically described in Numbers, chapter 25. In order to be joined to the false god Ba'al-Pe'or (Numbers 25:3), the Israelite men committed whoredoms with the cult prostitutes of Moab (Numbers 25:1).

SATAN CHANGES TACTICS

Satan changes tactics to accommodate new moves of God. Cult prostitution eventually became too obvious an evil even for Israelites; the practice got 24,000 of them killed with javelins (Numbers 25:7-8) and impaled upon poles (Numbers 25:4). But then came the crucifixion of Christ for the sins of the world.

The crucifixion of Christ for the sins of the world was a thing so powerful and so public that it called for an infinitely more subtle and devious method of deception. Thus, subsequent to Calvary, Satan set himself to pose as a messenger of light (2 Corinthians 11:14) and to appoint his minions as apostles of Christ (2 Corinthians 11:13), that is, as “Christians.” (Christ was the new Savior, requiring the name of Christ to be attached to the new deception.) And rather than sexualizing the worship of false gods, Satan decided to systematize it. The gods remained the same; only the system of worshipping them changed. Satan dismantled sex as the avenue of worship, re-creating it as a straw-man enemy with which to distract his new followers—

...that we may by no means still be minors, surging hither and thither and being carried about by every wind of teaching, by human caprice, by craftiness with a view to the systematizing of the deception (Ephesians 4:14).

SYSTEMS SUBSTITUTED FOR SEX

To hide the true purpose of his modern worship systems, Satan inspired a wholesale demonization of his ancient tactic. By engaging millions of worshippers onto the battlefield of a superfluous war against all things sexual (Satan, as I have said, abandoned sex as a worship tool), the Adversary would effectively blind these worshippers to the true deception, which was the system of worship: organization; beautification; popularization. The crowning touch would be the attachment of Christ's name to the system. The holy war against sex would not only be anachronistic and useless in the field of evangelism, but personally debilitating; those at war with even natural, sexual inclinations would, ironically, contract deeper sexual obsessions.

What better way to delude the masses than to engage them in an irrelevant moral war, giving them meaningless “victories” in it, while working unspeakable evils against God and Christ, not only in their midst, but through their hands. The deception must be so powerful and so complete that those ensnared by it would eventually call good evil and evil good.

The product of Satan’s diabolical genius has been among us for two-thousand years, having become the world’s most popular (and most sex-obsessed) religion. Nothing has turned more people from the true God and Christ than the Christian confession. Nothing has driven more people into deviant practices (sexual and otherwise) than Christianity and its dreadful, punishment-obsessed god. Those ensnared by this religion—the ones directly responsible for its steerge and dissemination—have unwittingly become Satan’s most effective allies against the true God.

NEGATIVE IMAGE

Woe to those who call evil good and good evil, who put darkness for light and light for darkness,
who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter.

Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes and clever in their own sight (Isaiah 5:20-21).

Christianity is a system of religion (“dread-demonism”) founded upon a fear-based system that punishes disobedience with a penalty more terrifying than anything a mere human mind could concoct, namely, eternal torture in fire, a doctrine of demons that appears nowhere in properly translated Scripture.* The Christian god will purportedly perform a miracle to keep human flesh burning for eternity—without consuming itself; therein lies the miracle—and will then, himself, gaze with satisfaction upon the never-ending suffering of those he failed to reach with his “turn or burn” gospel.

SEX

Sex is the same today as it was in the days of Moses—a gift of God. The only difference is that Satan no longer employs it as a portal into idolatry. (The Christians think he does, which suits his stratagem; in fact, it is his stratagem.) Whatever corner of sex Satan once claimed for idolatrous enterprises, he has dispossessed. He has better, cleaner systems. Satan still employs all things sexual—but as a diversion. The Prince of Darkness inspires front-door battles against sex so as to nurture back-door idolatry against God—an idolatry far worse than anything dabbled in by Israel in Canaan. Because of the doctrine of eternal torment—of which Christianity is enamored—no religious organization has turned more humans against the true God. See how Satan drives his messengers into condemning sex (calling what is good “evil”), while extolling eternal torment (calling what is evil “good.”) Such devious manipulation requires other-worldly intelligence.

MANY TERMED “GODS” AMONG CELESTIALS

I have told you for years that four evil spirits, seen by Daniel (7:2) as four winds rushing up from the sea, birthed and presently impel the four main religions of earth: Buddhism, Hinduism, Islam and Christianity. The most deceptive of these is the latter, for only this religion claims the only name under heaven by which humanity is saved, and only this religion (of the four) answers to Satan's nomination of his messengers as "apostles of Christ" (2 Corinthians 11:13).

Many false gods vexed Israel, drawing her away from Yahweh. These included:

- ▶ Ashtoreth
- ▶ Ba'al
- ▶ Ba'al-Pe'or
- ▶ Chemosh
- ▶ Marduk
- ▶ Milcom

These gods were real. No figment of Israelite imagination, these. These gods were—and are—actual deities with appalling authority both in heaven and on earth. They are probably among those mentioned by Paul (though not by name) in Ephesians 6:12—

...for it is not ours to wrestle with blood and flesh, but with the sovereignties, with the authorities, with the world-mights of this darkness, with the spiritual forces of wickedness among the celestials.

These are the beings we wrestle against. Ba'al-Pe'or is the god obsessing our friends and family members.

Remember,

For even if so be that there are those being termed gods, whether in heaven or on earth, even as there are many gods and many lords, nevertheless for us there is one God, the Father, out of Whom all is, and we for Him, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through Whom all is, and we through Him (1 Corinthians 8:5-6).

BA'AL-PE'OR

I am now prepared to tell you that I believe Ba'al-Pe'or to be the god behind the Christian religion, and the god that is actually worshipped by Christians; he is the god clothing himself with the false names of "God" and "Christ," but who is neither God nor Christ (for none of his teachings reflect the true God and Christ), but whose actual name is Ba'al-Pe'or—the very god worshipped by Israel in Canaan.

Ba'al was not a singular deity, but rather the common name of several deities worshipped by the Canaanites. Ba'al-Pe'or received his name because his worship centered in the region of Beth-Pe'or in Moab, and especially on the high place of Mount Pe'or. I favor this deity as the god of Christianity because of the Ba'al association with sex and with fire, the twin obsessions of the Christian "faith."

We have already seen the Ba'al obsession (Ba'al-Pe'or) with sex. Witness now the obsession with fire—

...because that they have forsaken Me, and make known this place, and make perfume in it to other gods, that they knew not, they and their fathers, and the kings of Judah, and they have filled this place [with] innocent blood, and have built the high places of Ba'al to burn their sons with fire, burnt-offerings to Ba'al, that I commanded not, nor spake of, nor did it come up on My heart. Therefore, lo, days are coming—an affirmation of Jehovah—and this place is not called any more, Tophet, and Valley of the son of Hinnom, but, Valley of slaughter (Jeremiah 19:4-6).

The valley of ben Hinnom (currently known as the valley of Gehenna in the southwest of Jerusalem and translated "hell" in Matthew 5 and Mark 9 in the common English versions) is the very place where Christians believe the majority of the human race will be consciously tortured—in flame—by God.

As for the sexual aspect—what irony. The focus of Ba'al-Pe'or is still sex, but the tactical change now has his acolytes fighting it rather than indulging it. No matter; the deception is so much better and the result is the same: his followers are led away from the worship of the true God.

THE NEW WHORE

The new whore of Satanic deception is Babylon. The name “Babylon” means “confusion.” Christianity is the satanic repository of confusion. Here, worshippers imagine themselves to be worshipping God but are in fact worshipping Ba'al-Pe'or. How could any confusion be more complete.

“Christians offer themselves daily to the mother whore.”

Paul says in 1 Timothy 4:1-2—

Now the spirit is saying explicitly, that in subsequent eras some will be withdrawing from the faith, giving heed to deceiving spirits and the teachings of demons, in the hypocrisy of false expressions, their own conscience having been cauterized.

The many false expressions of Christianity include “eternal torment,” “human free will” and “the Trinity”—phrases appearing nowhere in properly translated Scripture but which make God unintelligible, ungraspable and unknowable to common seekers.

Revelation 17:3-6—

And he carries me away, in spirit, into a wilderness. And I perceived a woman sitting on a scarlet wild beast replete with names of blasphemy, and having seven heads and ten horns. And the woman was clothed with purple and scarlet, and gilded with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand, brimming with abominations and the uncleannesses of the prostitution of her and the earth. And on her forehead is written a name: Secret Babylon the Great the mother of the prostitutes and the abominations of the earth. And I perceive the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the witnesses of Jesus. And I marvel at perceiving her. The marvel is great!

Christians, who would blanch at the mere mention of idolatry, worship Ba'al-Pe'or. These who would shudder at the mere prospect of prostitution, offer themselves daily to the mother whore. One of the most remarkable passages of Scripture is when our Lord tells the Pharisees in Matthew 21:31—

Verily, I am saying to you that the tribute collectors and the prostitutes are preceding you into the kingdom of God.

How is it that prostitutes find God before priests? Now you understand. Spiritual prostitution is true decadence. While fleshly prostitutes pirouette into the kingdom, spiritual prostitutes die for the eon. There is no greater sin than idolatry. There is no sin more grievous to our Lord than the offering of divine service to a false god disguising itself as the True. God hates idols because they present to the world a false image of Himself. There is no greater falsification of God than that forwarded by the Christian religion. It is not the outside of the cup that matters, but what lies within. Ba'al-Pe'or offers his disciples a way to preserve their own righteousness even while offering lip service to the righteousness of God. It is fatal hypocrisy.

Christians fight all the wrong battles, straining out gnats and swallowing camels. A foreign spirit impels them to their doom. That spirit is Ba'al-Pe'or.

Avoid his assemblies. —MZ
